OUR LADY OF SORROWS SEPTEMBER 15

Mary is venerated under this title to commemorate the seven sorrows that she suffered: The prophecy of Simeon, the flight into Egypt, the loss of the child Jesus in the temple, meeting Jesus carrying his cross, the Crucifixion, receiving the body of Jesus from the cross, and the burial of Jesus. A devotional image of her shows her heart pierced with seven swords.

We Have Two New Saints

Pope Leo canonized two saints on September 7th. Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati are now Saint Carlo Acutis and Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati. Both newly canonized saints were of Italian descent, died young and gave their lives to Jesus.

St. Carlo Acutis was fifteen years old when he died. He is the patron saint of the internet for his online work noting miracles and creating and running websites about our faith. His feast day is October 12th.

St. Pier Giorgio Frassati was twenty four years old when he died. He is the patron saint of youth, young adults, athletes and "ordinary people." His feast day is July 4th, which is also the date of his death.

St. Carlo and St. Pier Giorgio, Pray For Us.

St. Joseph's corner

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.
—1 Corinthians 1:18

With these words, St. Paul frames our celebration of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, a feast with its roots in 4th-century Jerusalem, when the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre was dedicated on the very site of Christ's death and resurrection. The word sepulchre—a tomb—once carried with it the inevitability of corruption and decay. Yet in Christ, even the tomb was redeemed. No longer a place of despair, it became a sign of glory—the empty chamber that proclaims His victory over death. In venerating the Sepulchre, the Church shows us how Christ transforms what was once a place of shame into a dwelling of glory.

This pattern of redefinition and redemption appears again and again in our faith. The Church Fathers spoke of the “spoils of Egypt” (Exodus 12:36): the treasures carried by Israel out of Egypt. Origen and Augustine taught that what was once used for idolatry can, when purified and reoriented, be offered to God in worship. The early Christians did this with the Roman festival of Sol Invictus—the unconquered sun. While the actual date of the Lord's Nativity may well have been extrapolated from the date of the Annunciation—calculated on the ancient belief that the world was created and later redeemed on the same day—it nevertheless came to supplant a feast familiar to Roman Christians. In doing so, the Church proclaimed that Christ is the true “light of the world” (John 8:12). Even the obelisk in St. Peter's Square—once a monument to Pharaohs and Caesars—now stands crowned by the Cross, declaring Christ's dominion over history.

The form of the Cross is impressed upon all creation: in the sails of a ship, in a plough, in a man standing with arms extended. Thus, the Cross was foreshadowed, and in it all things are made firm.
— St. Justin Martyr, First Apology

At the center of the feast is the Cross itself. In Roman culture, the cross was an instrument of terror, humiliation, and subjugation. Yet, Christ remade it into the sign of good triumphing over evil, of mercy defeating sin, of life conquering death. The very image of the Cross, the invocation of its name, became, in the tradition of the Church, an object of blessing, a shield against the powers of darkness, and—according to the Fathers—a terror to demons.

Here we recall the wisdom of St. Justin Martyr, who spoke of the “Seeds of the Word” scattered throughout creation. He teaches that all that is truly good is already ordered toward Christ, awaiting its fulfillment in Him. The Cross reveals this truth about intentionality: material things may be neutral in themselves, but they take on meaning through the heart's orientation. The golden calf, merely metal, became an idol when treated as divine. The Cross, mere wood, became in Christ the very sign of salvation, the place where love triumphed over sin and death.

Idolatry requires intention. A statue, image, or ritual in itself does not condemn; it becomes sinful only when the will bends it toward worship of what is not God. In the same way, tearing down or mocking what is misunderstood, if done in pride or contempt, risks becoming a sin of its own. Christ does not call us to desecration, but to redemption — to take what is broken and, by grace, transform it into an offering to God.

And so, we return to the Cross as husbands and fathers. The Cross in our home is not only the crucifix hanging on the wall, but the hidden sacrifice of daily life—the burdens carried in love, the patience with our children, the faithfulness to our wives, the silent endurance of trials. These are our “spoils of Egypt”—the ordinary burdens of life, carried out from the world, yet raised up and purified in Christ. God asks us not to discard them in anger or shame, but to lift them to Him so that they may become the very means of our sanctification.

Exalt the Cross in your life. Teach your children not to fear it but to embrace it with love. Bear it, not as a burden of defeat, but as a banner of love that saves and strengthens. In doing so, you will lead your family, like St. Joseph, quietly but firmly beneath its shadow and into its glory.

—Sebastian Abbinanti (Parish Pastoral Council Member)

JUBILEE YEAR CELEBRATIONS

On September 20, our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer and celebrating with those who work to bring justice to all facets of our daily life. Let us acknowledge the members of our parishes' Peace and Justice Committees for their work to instill in each of us our own responsibility to create a world that makes peace and justice the hallmark of its daily life.

MERCY, COMPASSION, FORGIVENESS...

If you are suffering from grief after having had an abortion, remember that God always offers forgiveness. Nothing is unforgivable and the Church is the hospital of healing. Just as the father ran to the prodigal son when he came home, so too is God waiting with open arms to receive you back home!

2025 Retreat Oct. 17-19

Our Lady of the Angels Retreat Center
at Sisters of Mt. Assisi - Lemont, IL

RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREATS FOR HEALING AFTER ABORTION

Rachel's Vineyard retreats offer an opportunity for healing to any woman or man who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of an abortion.

The retreat is a get away from the daily pressures, to focus on a painful time in life, and to begin healing through a supportive and non-judgmental process.

Many preconceived fears of condemnation become blessings; abandonment, pain, and confusion are replaced by reconciliation, grace and peace.

Spiritual exercises focusing on God's forgiveness, compassion, and mercy are shared through psychological exercises that help participants work through repressed grief and anger that may exist. Concluding with a Memorial Service the retreat will help your soul find a voice and transform the pain into love and hope.
