BAPTISMS

Aniela Izabela Guzman, Antonina Anna Skik, Mila Pasciak, and Matthias Nowakowski

received the Sacrament of Baptism on September 20th and 21st. Congratulations and may God Bless these children!

PRO-LIFE Baby Shower

Thank you to all who supported the Respect Life Committee's Spiritual Adoption program this year. Beginning in January, parishioners "spiritually adopted" and named a newly conceived child, praying for the baby's health, and the health of the mother, throughout the following nine months. It's time to celebrate the upcoming birth of our adopted babies!

We will be holding a Pro-Life Baby Shower after all masses the weekend of October 4th and 5th. There will be cribs in the Narthex for your donations of new baby items, and the Respect Life Committee will be serving Birthday cake!

Donated items will be distributed to local Pro-Life centers (Waterleaf & PASS). Monetary contributions will also be accepted. These centers provide support, counseling, ultrasounds and material goods to women and families who are in complicated situations.

The current greatest needs are:

Onesies, Sleepers, Socks,
Bibs, Fitted Crib Sheets,
and Seasonal Clothing up to size 5T.
Diapers All Sizes (especially sizes 4, 5, & 6)
Baby Wash & Wipes
Gift Cards in $20 or $25 amounts to Walmart, Amazon or Meijer

Thank you for putting words into action in support of these local Moms and their babies during the past nine months!

FAITH FORMATION

For further information on any of the items below, or on the Religious Education program, please contact Janet Litterio in the Faith Formation Office at 708-301-0214 or faithformation@omgccc.org

OCTOBER 29 - OFF

We thank you for heeding the directions in the parking lot at HJH upon dismissal. Our Knights of Columbus are helping with this important task to keep our children safe.

Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels

Everyone has a guardian angel, not solely children. Our guardian angel has many responsibilities, such as watching over us, represent us before God, aid in our prayers and present our souls to God at death.

October 2nd is the feast to honor guardian angels, and began in the 16th century. In 1615, Pope Paul V added this feast to the Roman Calendar.

Angel of God, my Guardian Dear, To Whom God's Love
commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side,
To light, to guard, to rule and guide.
~Amen

UNDY SUNDAY OCTOBER 18/19

Most people take things like underwear for granted. We have found that low-income families and seniors with poverty-level incomes do not spend money on underwear and desperately need it.

During the weekend of October 18 and 19, we will be collecting new personal items such as: underwear, socks, under-shirts, pajamas, and bras to help our neighbors in need.

St. Joseph's corner

Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.
—Matthew 3:9

We have all crossed the street to avoid the beggar, dismissing his needs as those of a drunkard, not worth the spare change in our pocket. Some of us, knowing the right words, even call this prudence—"I'm helping him by not giving him money." But are we really helping? Even if he is in the grip of addiction, and money may only feed his compulsion, is money truly all we have to give?

The parable of the rich man and Lazarus asks us to do more than decide whether or not to hand over a few coins. It asks us to see Lazarus. It asks us to recognize him as a brother. The rich man did not. He clothed himself in purple and fine linen, feasted sumptuously, and stepped over Lazarus at his gate. He denied Lazarus his dignity, reserving even the scraps from his table for the dogs.

A Chasm Too Late

And when he died, the rich man discovered a truth too late: it is not enough to be a "child of Abraham" in name. It is not enough to claim covenant lineage. He cries out, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me!" But Abraham answers with words that must have cut deeper than the flames: "Between us and you a great chasm has been fixed." Here is the heart of the parable: there is a gulf between name and life, between heritage and holiness, between being baptized into Christ and actually living as His disciple. The rich man is right biologically, but wrong spiritually. He had the covenant in name, but not in life. For Israel, it was not enough to be Abraham's child by blood; one must live Abraham's faith (cf. Galatians 3:7). For us, it is not enough to be baptized and proclaim the Catholic label, wear the crucifix around our neck, and hold the rosary in our hands. Baptism is real adoption, but it is meant to unfold into a life of faith, hope, and charity. To think otherwise is to reduce the sacraments to magic spells, as if they work apart from our faith and conversion. The sacraments always confer grace, but they demand our 'yes' for that grace to bear fruit.

Grafted into Christ

To use St. Paul's images: Baptism is dying and rising with Christ (Romans 6), and like wild branches grafted into the cultivated olive tree (Romans 11), we are joined to His covenant people. But that graft must bear fruit—or else the life of the Vine does not flow through us. As Christ Himself warns, every branch that refuses to bear fruit will be cut off and cast into the fire. Apart from Him, we cannot live. Only in Him—and in continual conversion and repentance—do we bear fruit.

This was the tragedy of the rich man. He claimed Abraham as his father, but his life bore no fruit of Abraham's faith. His inheritance became a chasm because he never allowed God's gift to take root in deeds of trust, obedience, and mercy.

The truth is bracing: it is not enough to be baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, if we do not live like Abraham, if we do not live like the Son, if we do not walk in the Holy Spirit.

Grace, Not Pelagian Effort

Now, a word of caution. It is easy to mishear this teaching and think: "I must try harder. If I do enough good works, I'll make it to the right side of the chasm."

This is not the Gospel. That is Pelagianism—the ancient heresy that claims we can save ourselves by sheer effort of the will, as if grace were optional. But grace is not optional. We cannot earn salvation. We do not climb our way into Christ's life by works; rather, we receive His life as a gift, and from that gift, good works flow.

The Christian life is not about straining harder—it is about surrendering deeper. Yet surrender does not make us passive; it makes our efforts fruitful, because they are empowered by grace. We abandon ourselves, our will, and our disordered desires, and we embrace Christ: the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

This is why St. Joseph matters so much. He did not rely on heritage, nor did he attempt to save himself by sheer effort. He received God's word, trusted it, and obeyed in silence. His greatness was not in self-will but in surrender. St. Joseph shows us that the life of Abraham, the life of Christ, is lived not by striving harder but by yielding more completely to grace.

Our Call

As husbands and fathers, this parable confronts us with urgency. It is not enough to rely on our heritage or on sacramental checklists. It is not enough to wear the title "Catholic dad" while stepping over the Lazarus at our gate—whether that Lazarus is our wife's unspoken needs, our children's hunger for our attention, or the neighbor who silently suffers.

Our call is to live Abraham's faith, to live Christ's obedience, and to let the Holy Spirit shape every choice of our lives. That does not mean saving ourselves by sheer willpower; it means receiving grace as St. Joseph did—attentively, humbly, decisively. The rich man's tragedy was presumption. St. Joseph's greatness was surrender.

Brothers, the gulf that is fixed after death is determined by the choices we make today. Every act of love builds a bridge; every act of neglect deepens the chasm. The question is not whether we can call Abraham "father." The question is whether we will live as true sons in the Son.

—Sebastian Abbinanti (Parish Pastoral Council Member)

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

What is 40 Days for Life?

40 Days for Life Prayer Vigil is a wonderful 'life saving' opportunity to join with our community and hundreds of other cities around the world in prayer, fasting and keeping a peaceful vigil in front of a place where children are aborted. Through God, and your prayers and fasting, 40 Days for Life has saved more than 25,000 lives from abortion. It has led to the conversion of clinic workers and has seen many abortion facilities close completely.

We often forget the incredible power of prayer and loving witness, but 40 Days for Life reminds us of the fruits of dialogue with the Lord.

How Can I Help?

Please sign up to pray for an hour at Access Clinic in Downers Grove (1700 75th St.).

Visit www.40daysforlife.com/downersgrove and click on "Sign Up for Vigil Hours". The 2025 Fall 40 Days Vigil runs Sept. 24 – Nov. 2. Reserve your spot today!

OUR MOTHER OF GOOD COUNSEL & ST. BERNARDS RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE has reserved every Monday from 11AM to 12PM (Oct. 6, 13, 20, 27). Join Us! Private prayer and fasting are also ways in which you can be a part of 40 days for Life.
