On Thursdays, there will be a prayer service at 8:00 am. The Holy Eucharist will still be distributed.

A Prayer for the Anniversary of 9/11

God of love we place in your loving arms the thousands of innocent lives that were lost on that unforgettable morning of September 11, 2001. We also remember the courage of the countless men and women who put their lives at risk in order to rescue, alleviate and bring solace to the afflicted. Help us to continue to work for a world free from every form of hatred, violence and ignorance. May terrorism -- in all its forms -- disappear from the face of the earth.

Caring for Body and Soul

Dear Parishioners,

In this week's Gospel, Saint Peter asks Jesus a question about the limits of Christian love. Mercy is not a passive feeling; it is love in motion. When we receive God's mercy, it compels us to turn outward and serve our neighbors.

The MAKE! initiative, launched by Archbishop Hicks, is central to the Diocese of Joliet's pastoral efforts. Based on the Great Commission to "Go and make disciples," it emphasizes Catechesis, Evangelization, and Faith in Action. It urges us to shift from a passive faith to one that actively engages, loves, and serves the community.

At Our Mother of Good Counsel, we embody MAKE! via community outreach, promoting a healthy parish that offers "Care for Body and Soul." We're excited to host two seminars by parishioners aimed at helping our community improve their physical and practical well-being.

We invite you, your family, friends, and neighbors to join us for these two special community events. Everyone is welcome!

Vascular Health: This educational seminar covers vascular health, circulation, and treatment options to help you live healthier. It will be held on Sunday, September 20th. The Polish presentation will be at 1:00 PM, and the English version at 2:30 PM.

Medicare Educational Seminar: Navigating Medicare can be overwhelming, whether you are preparing to enroll for the first time or helping an aging parent make critical healthcare decisions. This seminar will be held on two dates. The Polish presentation will be on Wednesday, September 16th, at 11:00 AM, and the English version will be on Wednesday, September 23rd, at 11:00 AM.

The seminar will cover the basics of Medicare Parts A, B, C, and D, enrollment timelines, and strategies to avoid costly penalties.

Living as Missionary Disciples: Jesus tells us that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we do for Him. Caring for our health and supporting one another are simple ways to live out this message.

Please pick up a flyer, share the invitation with a friend or neighbor who might benefit, and join us. Let us continue building our community.

In Christ,

Fr. Greg Podwysocki
Pastor

Troska o ciało i duszę

Drodzy Parafianie,

W tym tygodniu, w Ewangelii, święty Piotr pyta Jezusa o granice chrześcijańskiej miłości. Miłosierdzie nie jest biernym uczuciem — jest miłością, która wyraża się w działaniu. Kiedy doświadczamy Bożego miłosierdzia, jesteśmy wezwani, aby zwrócić się ku innym i służyć naszym bliźnim.

Inicjatywa MAKE!, zapoczątkowana przez Arcybiskupa Hicksa, zajmuje ważne miejsce w działaniach duszpasterskich Diecezji Joliet. Opierając się na Wielkim Pośłannictwie: „Idźcie więc i nauczajcie wszystkie narody”, kładzie nacisk na katechezę, ewangelizację oraz wiarę wyrażaną w działaniu. Zachęca nas, abyśmy przeszli od wiary biernej do wiary, która aktywnie angażuje się w życie wspólnoty, kocha i służy innym.

W parafii Matki Bożej Dobrej Rady realizujemy ideę MAKE! poprzez działalność na rzecz naszej wspólnoty, troszcząc się o zdrową parafię, która zapewnia „Troskę o ciało i duszę”. Z radością zapraszamy na dwa seminaria prowadzone przez naszych parafian, których celem jest pomoc w poprawie zdrowia fizycznego oraz w podejmowaniu ważnych, praktycznych decyzji życiowych.

Zapraszamy Was, Wasze rodziny, przyjaciół i sąsiadów na te dwa wyjątkowe wydarzenia. Wszyscy są mile widziani!

Zdrowie naczyń krwionośnych: To edukacyjne seminarium poświęcone będzie zdrowiu naczyń krwionośnych, krążeniu oraz możliwościom leczenia, które mogą pomóc w prowadzeniu zdrowszego życia. Odbędzie się w niedzielę, 20 września. Prezentacja w języku polskim rozpocznie się o 1:00 PM, a w języku angielskim o 2:30 PM.

Seminarium edukacyjne na temat Medicare: Poruszanie się po systemie Medicare może być trudne, niezależnie od tego, czy przygotowujemy się do pierwszego zapisu, czy pomagamy starszemu rodzicowi w podjęciu ważnych decyzji dotyczących opieki zdrowotnej. To seminarium odbędzie się w dwóch terminach:

Środa, 16 września, godz. 11:00 AM — prezentacja w języku polskim.

Środa, 23 września, godz. 11:00 AM — prezentacja w języku angielskim.

Seminarium obejmie podstawowe informacje dotyczące części A, B, C i D Medicare, terminy zapisów oraz sposoby unikania kosztownych kar za opóźniony zapis.

Żyjąc jako uczniowie-misjonarze: Jezus mówi nam, że cokolwiek czynimy dla jednego z tych najmniejszych naszych braci i sióstr, czynimy dla Niego. Troska o nasze zdrowie i wzajemne wspieranie się to proste sposoby realizowania tego przesłania w codziennym życiu.

Prosimy, abyście zabrali ze sobą ulotkę, podzielili się zaproszeniem z przyjacielem lub sąsiadem, któremu te informacje mogą się przydać, i dołączyli do nas. Niech nasza wspólnota nadal wzrasta i umacnia się.

W Chrystusie,

St. Joseph's Corner

Some of Christ's teachings that we struggle to understand. Forgiveness is not one of them. We understand what Jesus asks of us; the struggle is that we often do not want to do it.

Peter's question is remarkably human: "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Peter is looking for a limit. At what point have I forgiven enough? When does the debt become mine to collect? Jesus answers by taking the limit away: not seven times, but seventy-seven times.

That number is not accidental. Its origin reaches back to Lamech, a descendant of Cain, who boasts to his wives that he killed a man for striking him and then claims for himself vengeance seventy-sevenfold—far beyond the sevenfold protection God had placed upon Cain (Gen. 4:23-24). It is one of Scripture's starkest portraits of vengeance multiplying upon itself.

The story seems almost to hang there, awaiting its answer in Christ. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus takes Lamech's arithmetic of vengeance and reverses it. What had been a boast of retaliation without limit becomes a command of mercy without limit.

Jesus then gives us the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant to show the path of mercy over vengeance. The modern translation speaks simply of "a huge amount," but the Greek reads myriōn talantōn: ten thousand talents. A single talent represented roughly twenty years of a laborer's wages. Ten thousand talents therefore represents about 200,000 years of labor. At an annual salary of $65,000, that's about $13 billion.

The contrast is deliberate. The servant whose unimaginable debt has just been forgiven encounters a fellow servant who owes him one hundred denarii—roughly one hundred days' wages, perhaps $25,000 in modern terms—and has him thrown into prison.

It is easy to dismiss the numbers as hyperbole, but then we miss the point. The debt against the king is intentionally beyond repayment; the debt between the servants is substantial, but finite. But what about the cost to us? Jesus does not suggest that the wrongs committed against us are insignificant. He places them beside the immeasurable mercy we ourselves have received.

The price of that mercy is ultimately revealed on the Cross. We cannot repay the debt of sin ourselves; Christ makes satisfaction for what we cannot. How, then, can we receive such mercy from God while refusing to extend mercy over the comparatively smaller debts owed to us?

Dear brothers, recognize that our salvation is a gift, won for us by Christ and freely offered. It is a gift we cannot merit, but a gift, nonetheless, that we remain free to reject. God does not force His mercy upon us. He offers us His mercy and the grace to become merciful ourselves.

When we deny mercy to others, then, we do more than withhold something from them. We resist the very grace God is pouring into us. God's mercy is not denied to the unforgiving heart; rather, the unforgiving heart closes itself against that mercy. Forgiveness extends beyond our relationship with the person who has wronged us to our relationship with God. To forgive is to allow His mercy to pass through us. To refuse forgiveness is to cling to the debt of another while forgetting the immeasurably greater debt that has already been forgiven us.
